ABOUT ME

- Hello, I'm Usman, an enthusiastic web developer with a strong command of JavaScript, Next.js, Node.js, Tailwind CSS, and React.js. I possess extensive experience in creating fully responsive websites, leveraging Next.js to craft dynamic frontends. Currently, I am enhancing my skills in developing powerful and secure backends. My commitment is to deliver fast-performing, visually appealing websites that truly stand out.

PROJECTS

Todo List App

I have created a responsive Todo list app where users can add, edit, and delete tasks. Focused on clean code structure, React Hooks for state management, and a modern, mobile-friendly UI using Tailwind CSS.

Spotify-Clone

I've built a Spotify clone using HTML, CSS, and JavaScript, recreating a sleek, user-friendly interface. This project showcases my skills in front-end development, focusing on responsive design, intuitive navigation, and dynamic elements. With clean code and attention to detail, I've managed to replicate the core functionalities, providing an interactive music platform experience.
